Some useful links:

A demo of the clinicians GUI can be downloaded at http://www.va.gov/vista

The VA has posted some great training at http://www.va.gov/vehu/

VA VistA documentation is at http://www.va.gov/vdl .

The VA ftp site is ftp.va.gov/VistA for downloading the FOIA version of VistA from the VA

WorldVistA has meetings and the VVSO will be having training online and meetings. The VistA-Vendor support organization site is not really up and running yet but will be getting much better at http://www.WorldVistA.org/vvso . The WorldVistA web site at http://www.WorldVistA.org WorldVistA is a nonprofit organization https://lists.sourceforge.net/lists/listinfo/hardhats-members is the technical mailing list where most of the community hangs out. The archives of that are searchable and are a goldmine of tecnnical information.

the wiki for WorldVistA is at http://openforum.worldvista.org/~forum with install instructions for Linux/GTM

There is additional information at http://www.geocities.com/ktop3/ about installation

The Hardhats web site is at http://www.hardhats.org and the scratch install instructions for Cache at http://www.hardhats.org/projects/PROJECTSmain.html

 some other information and a demo of CPRS at http://www.va.gov/vista

The FOIA software download site for the va is ftp.va.gov/vista

The Iowa Foundation for Medical Care is at http://www.ifmc.org and are handling the initial distribution of VO

Cache folks are at htto://www.Intersystems.com where you can download a single user version of Cache for evaluation.

GT.M is at www.sourceforge.net search on GT.M Be sure to include the period between GT and M

OpenVistA on GT.M/Linux downloads are at Sourceforge search on WorldVistA

Many of the Vendors have banded together into the VistA Software Alliance at www.vistasoftware.org

The Hui web site is at www.PacificHui.org and look there at for the new OV 4 and some new training materials from the University of Hawaii.